

John Hook Award

The John Hook Award is presented to a parishioner who lives the Gospel call to service and justice. It honors one who has shown commitment to social ministry through direct service, advocacy, community organizing, and solidarity with the broader community over an extended period of time. This parishioner has also drawn others into the ministry of charity and justice. The award recipient embodies the belief that Christ is both met and served in the suffering and vulnerable.

John Hook was the longest serving member in the history of the St. Vincent DePaul Society with 75 years of service. John joined a St. Vincent DePaul group at SS. Philip and James when he was just 14 years old and remained an active and faithful member of the Society at St. Dominic Parish until shortly before his death in 2000. John was the quintessential parish volunteer. Once a call came in from a family in crisis, John went into action and never quit until he had fully assisted them. When a given family had multiple needs, John went to other groups and agencies to get help and never took “no” for an answer. For over 75 years he served thousands of families with respectful care and concern.
